

The Christ in You

The Christ in you is still.
He looks on what He loves, and knows it as Himself.
He rejoices at what He sees,
because He knows that it is one with Him and with His Father.

The Christ in you is very still.
He knows where you are going,
and He leads you there in gentleness and blessing all the way.
His love for God replaces all the fear you thought you saw in you.

The Christ in you looks only on the truth.
He knows only holiness and innocence, safety and perfect peace.
His holiness shows you Himself in your brother,
whose hand you hold and whom you lead to Him.

The Christ in you is quiet.
For He knows that love is in you now.
He reaches through you and through your brothers,
that together we may bless all living things and see their holiness.

The sight of Christ is all there is to see.
The song of Christ is all there is to hear.
The hand of Christ is all there is to hold.
There is no journey but to walk with Him.

Christ has no doubt,
and from His certainty His quiet comes.
He will exchange His certainty for all your doubts,
if you agree that He is one with you.

Christ is within you,
yet He walks beside you and before,
leading the way that He must go to find Himself complete.
His quietness becomes your certainty.
